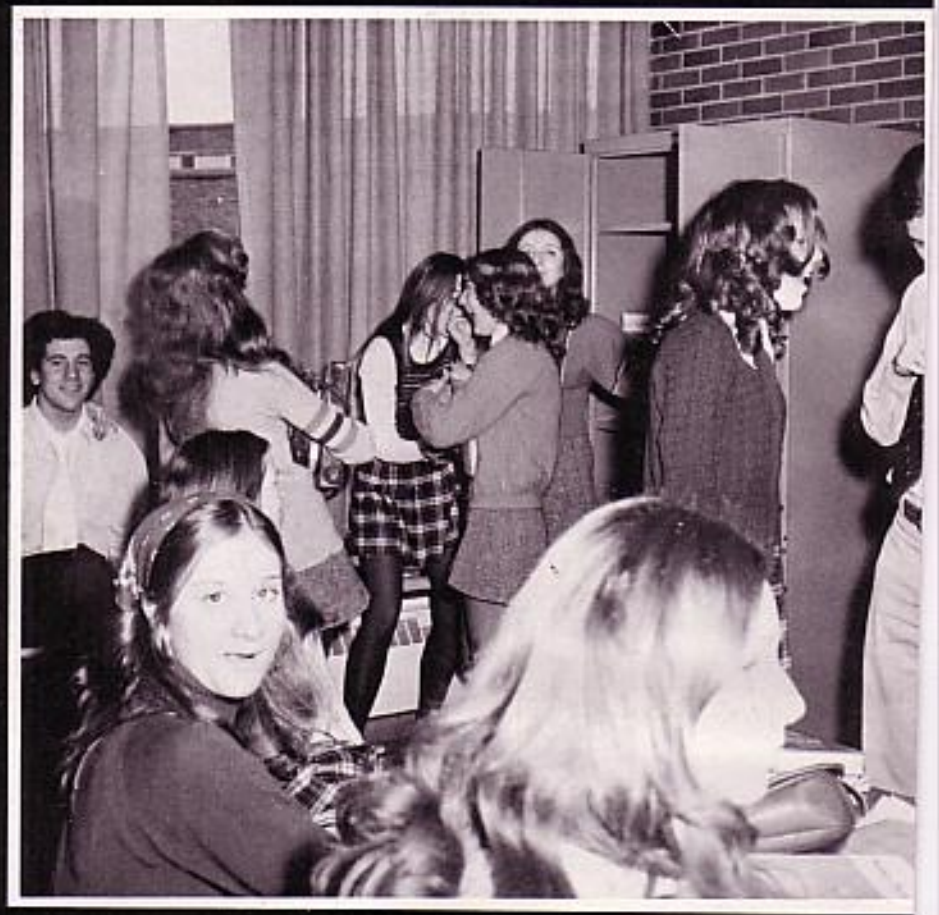
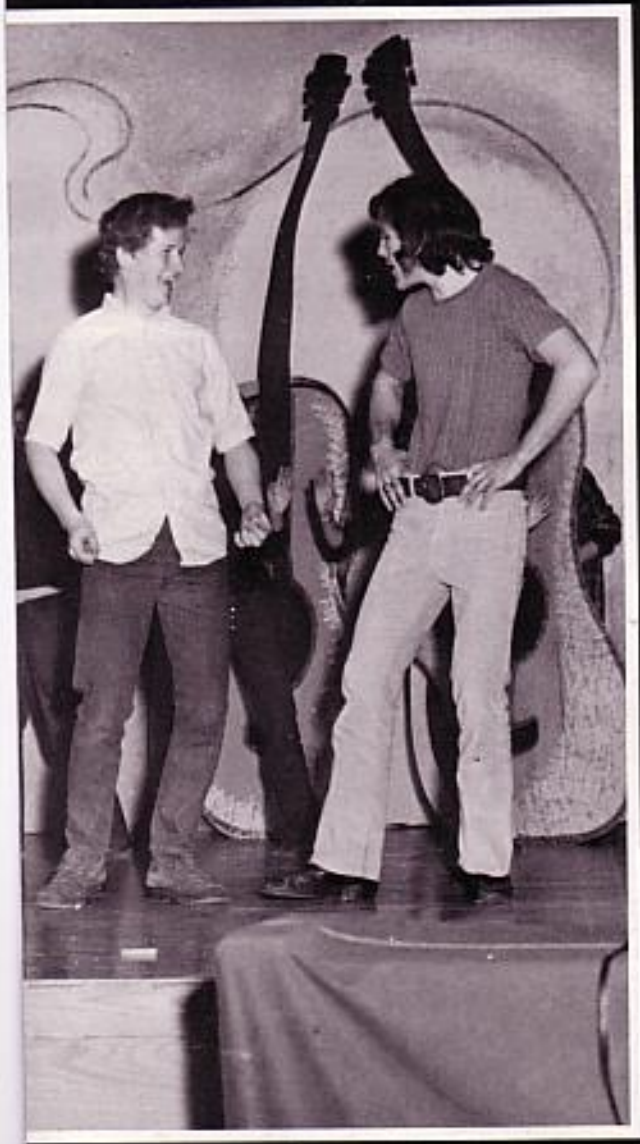
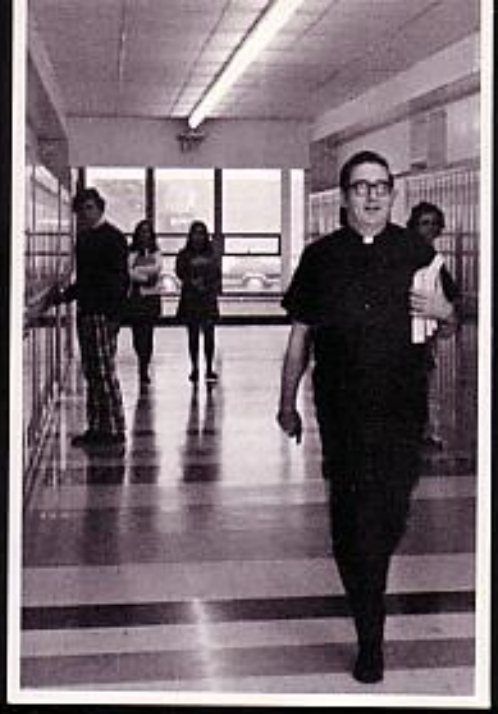
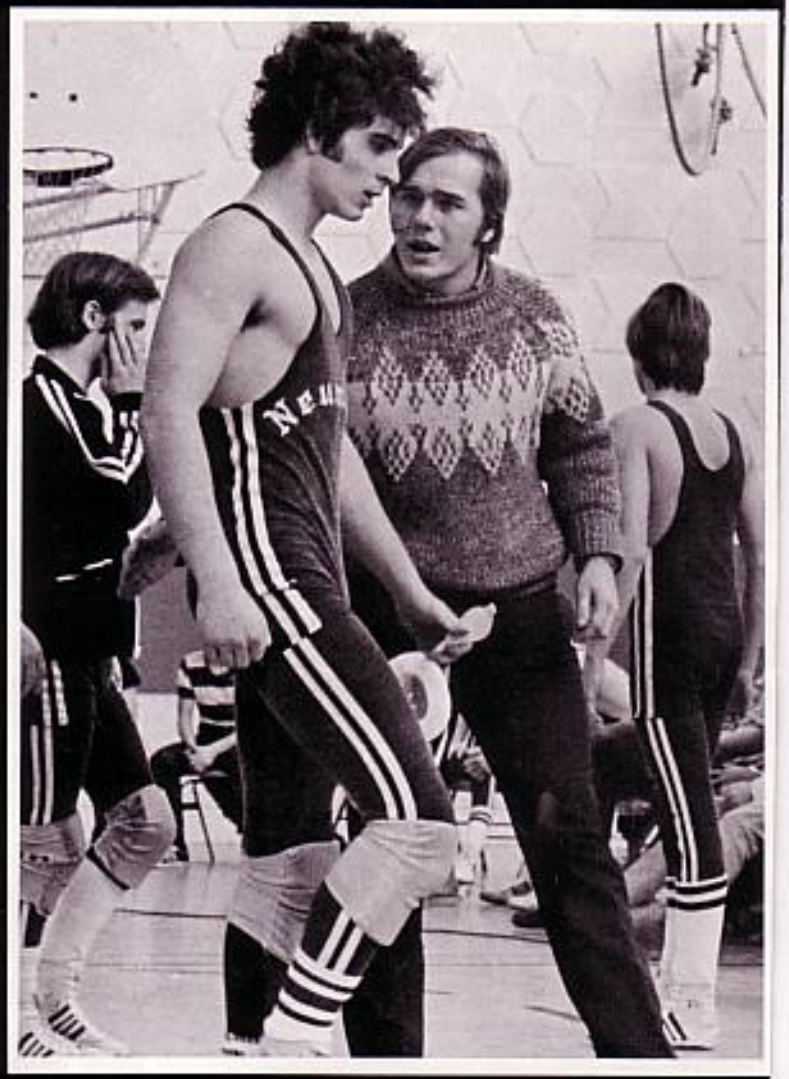
Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story.



Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself to others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans.

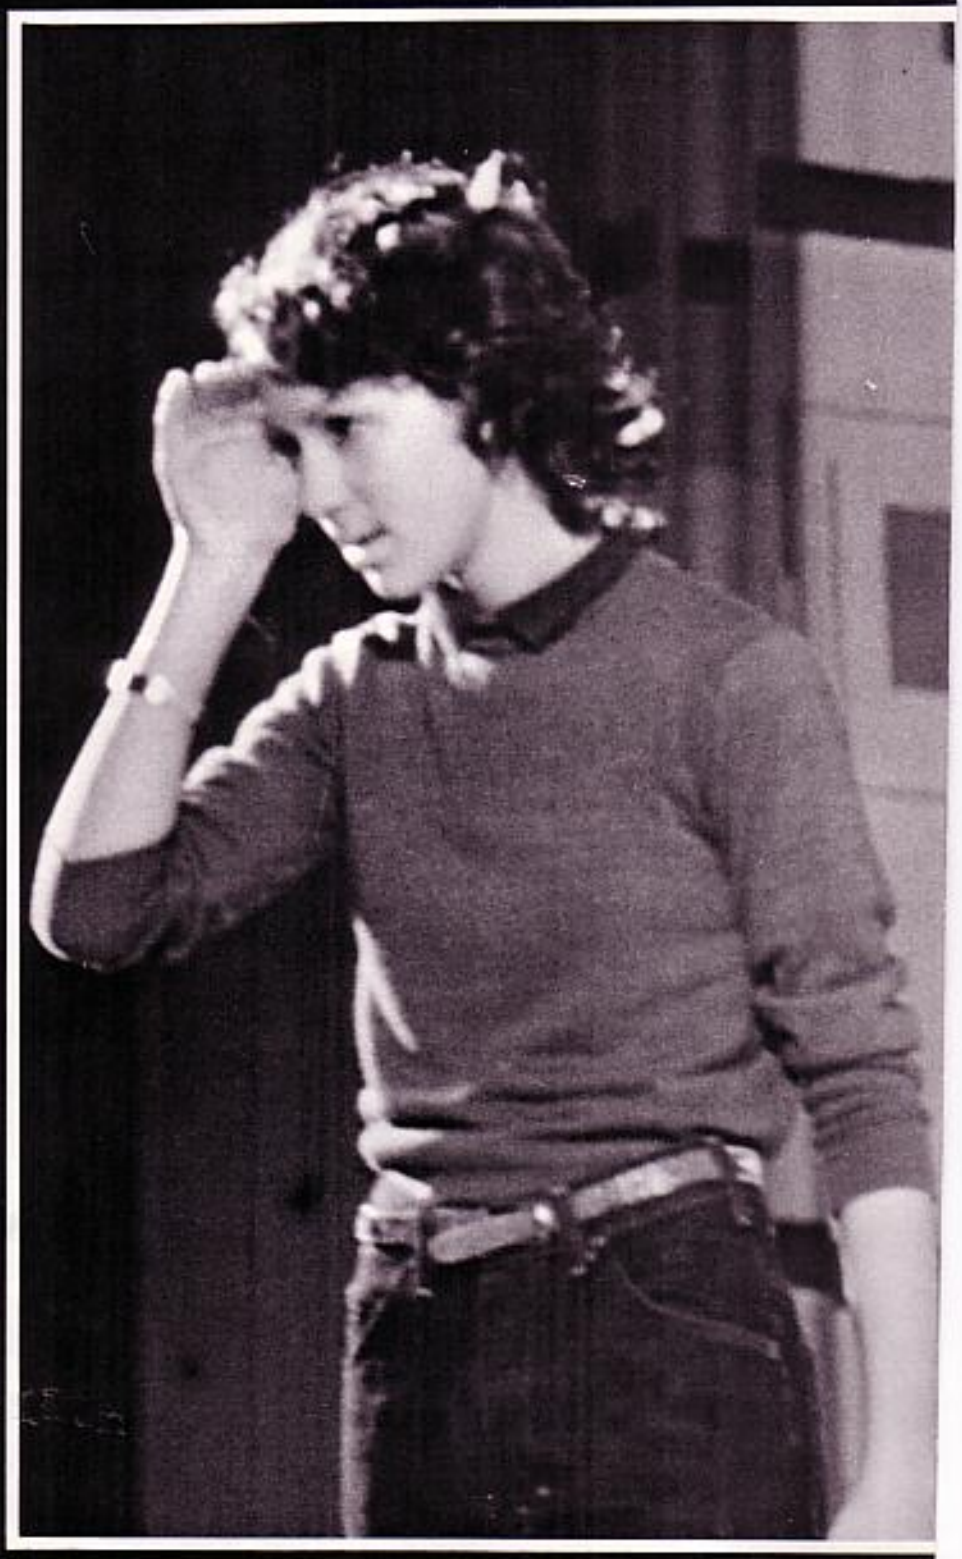






Keep interested in your own career, however humble: it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time.
Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery.
But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism.

Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is as perennial as the grass.
Take kindly the counsel of years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatique and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself.



You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul.

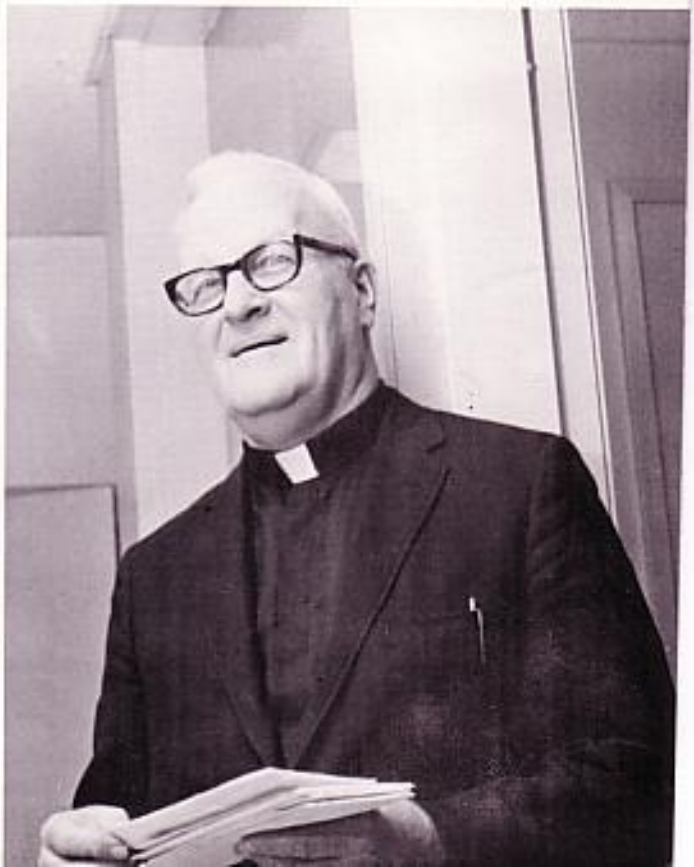
"Listen to others . . ."

A strong foundation

Our principal, Father Griffin, (Admin.-English) takes care of the details.

Getting involved is important to the faculty, too.

Father Kilroy (Admin.) grins as he finds a check in the mail.



Mr. Panzarella (Discipline) takes a break for a quick conference.

New look in administration
Our Principal — Father Griffin, O.M.I.
Asst. Principal of Building and Finance — Father Kilroy, O.M.I.
Mrs. Sullivan — Teaching Personal and Instruction
Coordinator of P.P.S. — Mrs. Schram
Mr. Domagalski — Dean of Students
Coordinator of Student Activities and Public Relations — Miss Seereiter
Sr. Evangela — Coordinator of Parent Activities

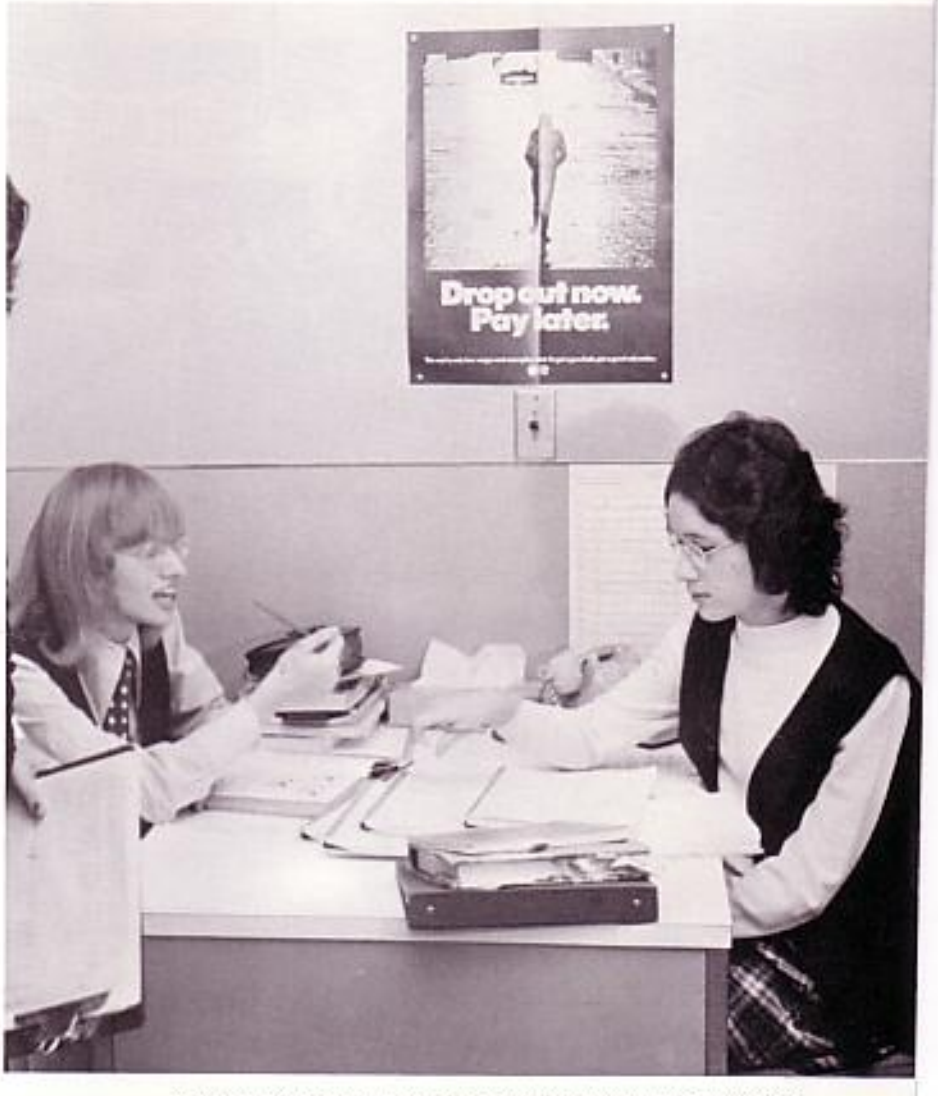
A place for peace and quiet.

Someone is always willing to help.

Sister Helen (Rel., P.P.S.) ponders another future.

Mrs. Baus is always busy.

When you want a helping hand



Many students enjoy spending their free time working in P.P.S.

Mrs. Schram's (P.P.S., Admin.) warm smile reassures a lot of worried students.

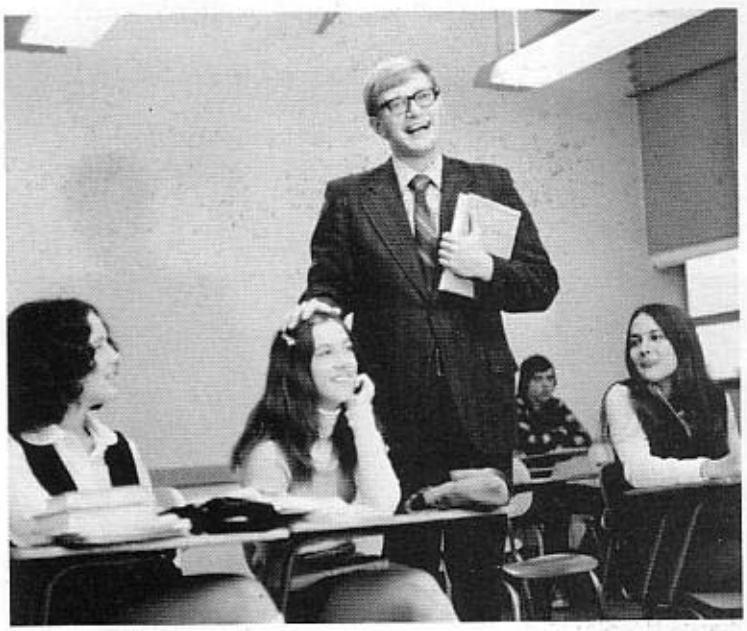
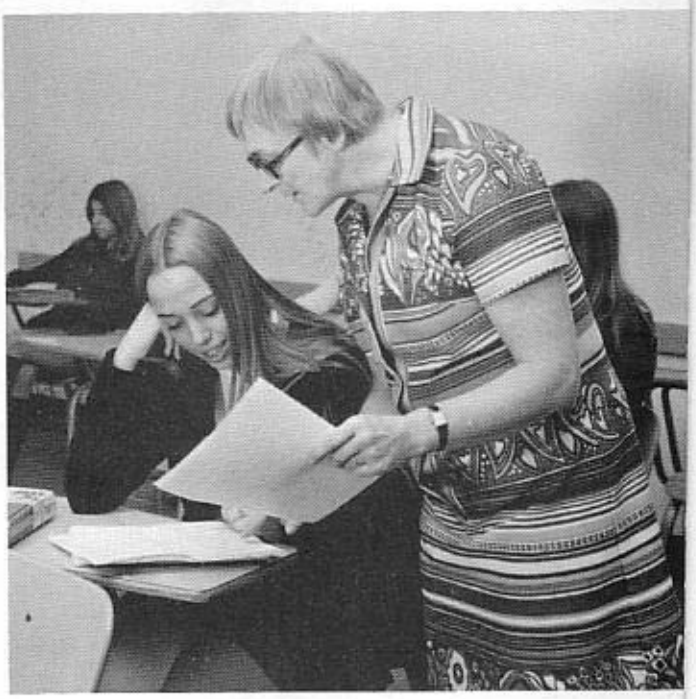
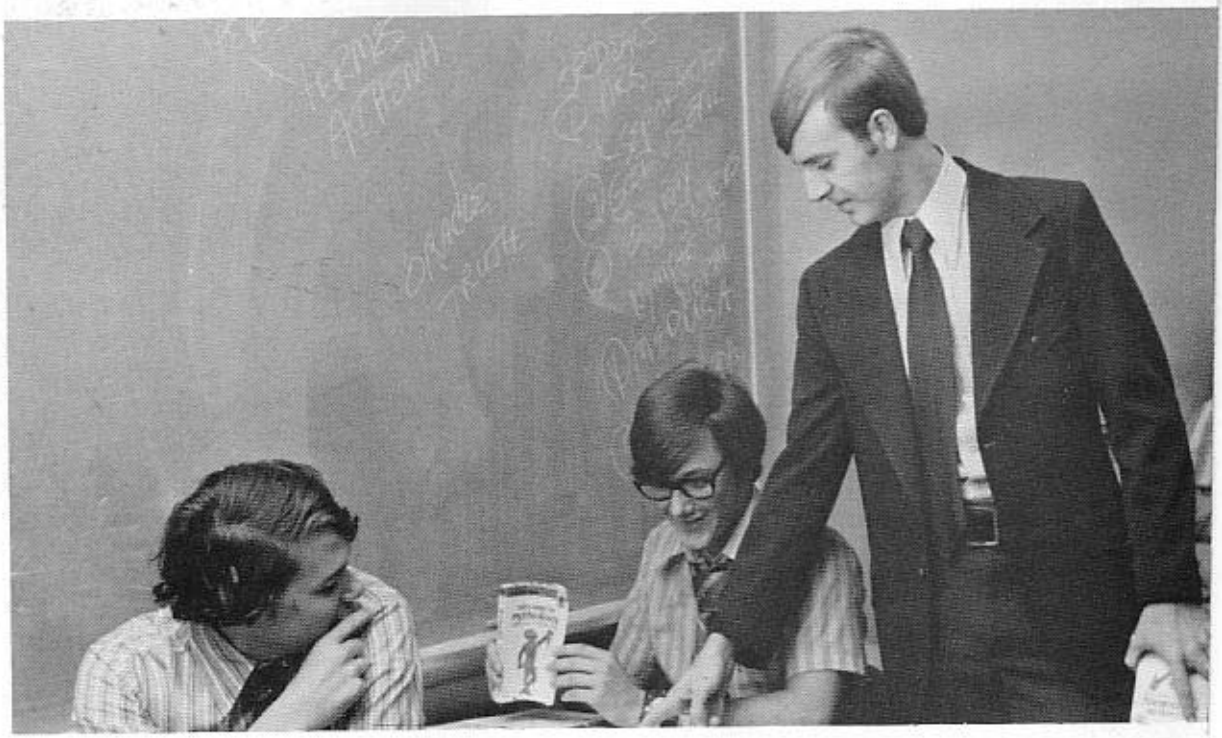
Humor is evident in Mrs. Komorowski's (English) classes.



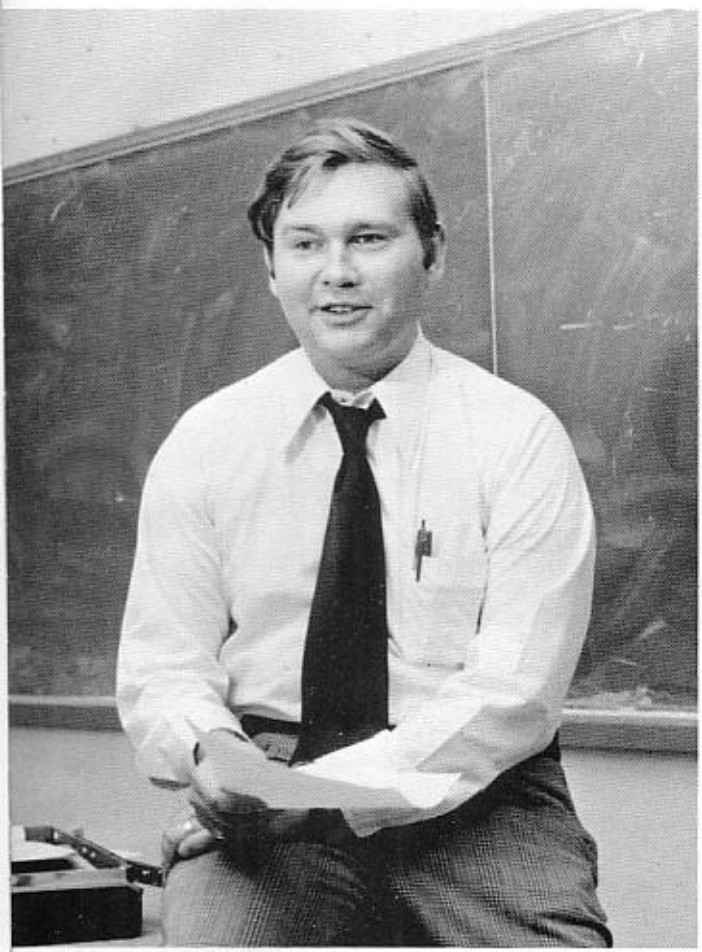
Mr. Posluszny (English) lends a guiding hand.



Mrs. Murphy (English) gives students personal assistance.



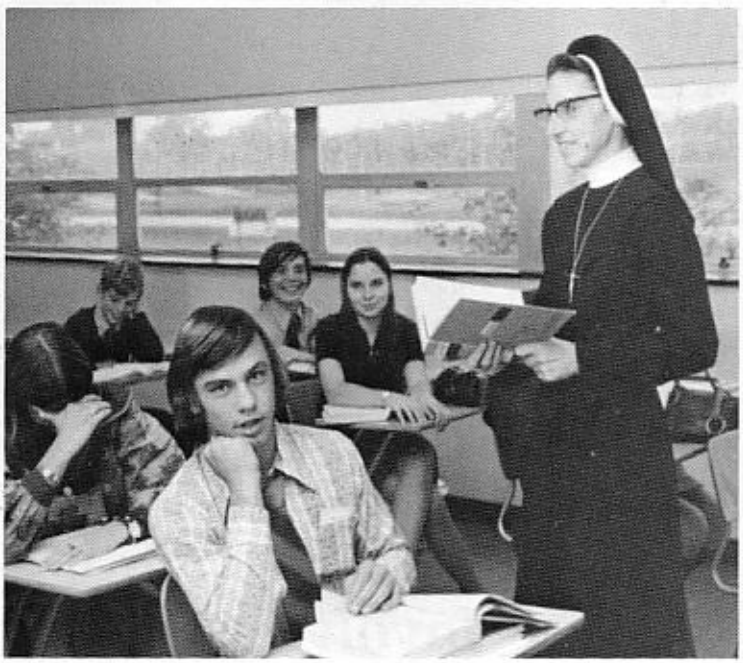
Mr. Robertson (English) helps clear up a doubtful "myth."



Learning is a pleasure, with Mr. Drost (English).

Mrs. Green (English) smiles with enthusiasm.

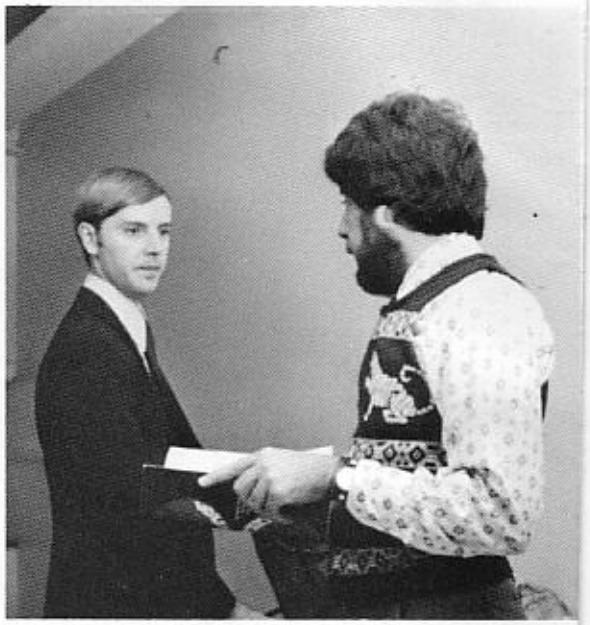
Mrs. Taggart (English) helps us every way she can.



Sr. Dolores Ann (Eng.-Rel.) leads her class in a Portrait of Jenny.

Path to a new dimension

New themes are explained by Miss Clabeaux (English).



Teacher cooperation is essential.

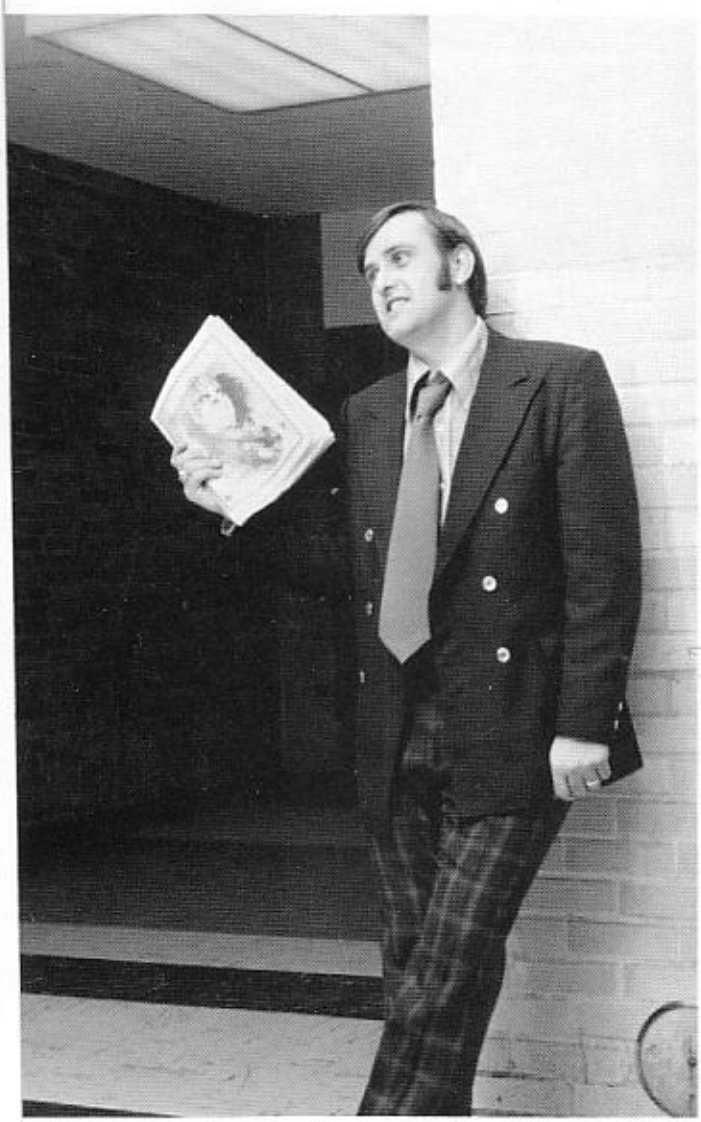
Sr. Pat Russ (English) enjoys new ideas.

Involving the mind

Improvisation is an art in Mr. Paolini's (English) class.

Where are you supposed to be?

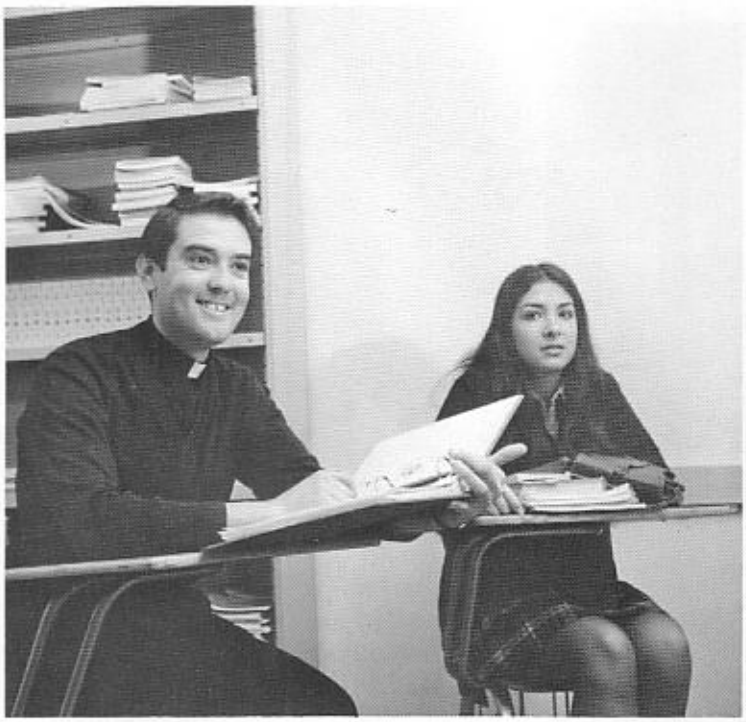
Dean of Students — Mr. Domagalski
Assistants — Miss Pellegrino, Brother Babicz, and Mrs. Posluszny
Students can go talk
Problems are discussed
Aims to develop better and more personal student-faculty relations
Detentions and majors keep students in line
Revised discipline code helps students to help themselves



Mr. Domagalski (Admin.-Hist.) found his favorite magazine.

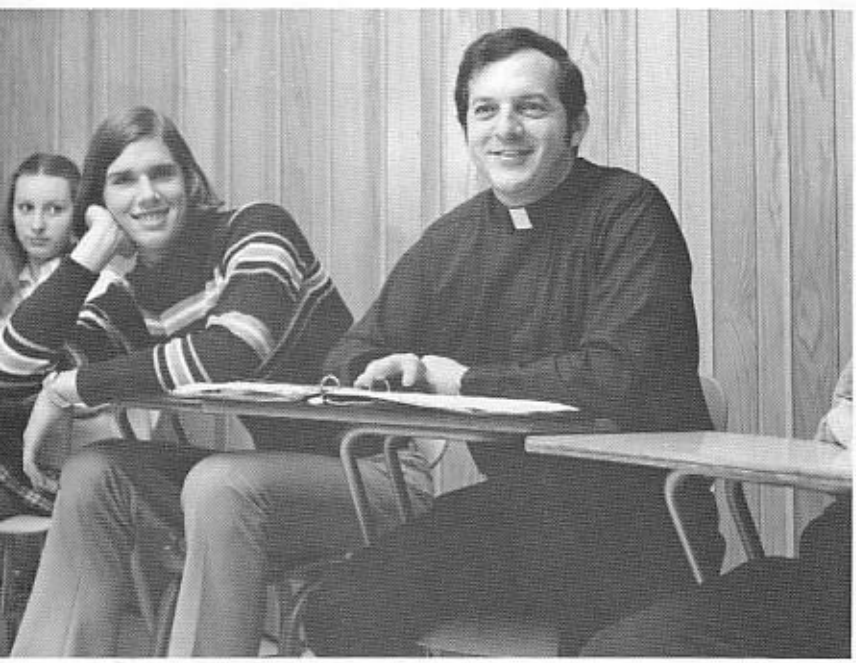
Mrs. Trillizio is great at organization.

For better communication



Fr. McAlear (Religion) enjoys his new post.

Sr. Grace (Religion) finds a peaceful moment.



A smile is a contagious thing with Fr. Idziak (Religion).

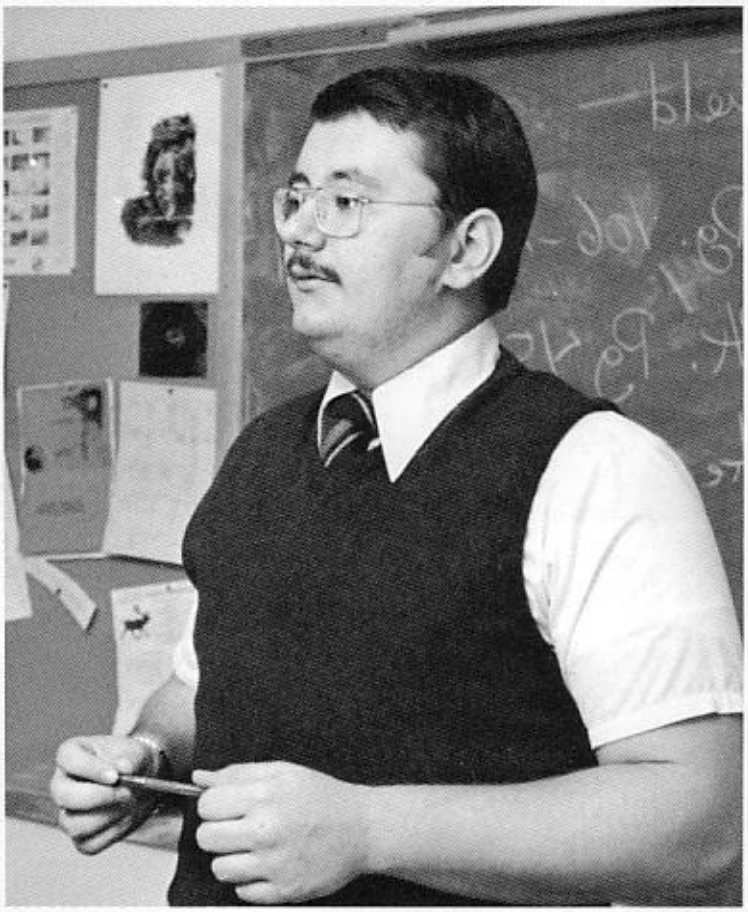
Competition keeps the spirit alive for Mr. Bridenbaker (Phys. Ed.).

Fitness is important to Mrs. Posluszny (Phys. Ed.).

We learn of life

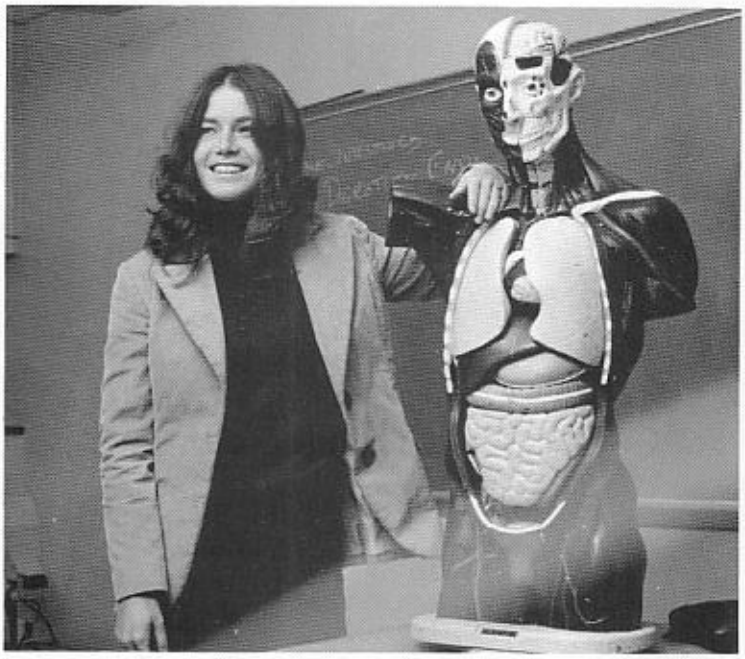
Miss Henchbarger (Science) makes biology fun and interesting.



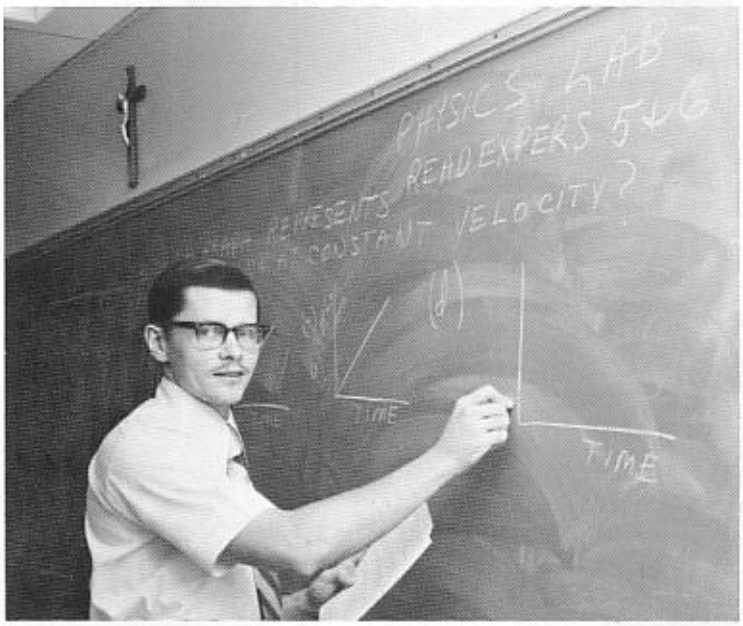
Another concept understood with Mr. Farrell's (Science) help.

Mrs. Mendrykowski's (Science) explainations are down to earth.

Mrs. Domagalski's (Science, Math) relaxed attitude makes learning easy.



To Mrs. Warner (Science) a friend in need, is a friend indeed.



Even Physics is easily simplified by Mr. Killian (Science).

From molecular construction

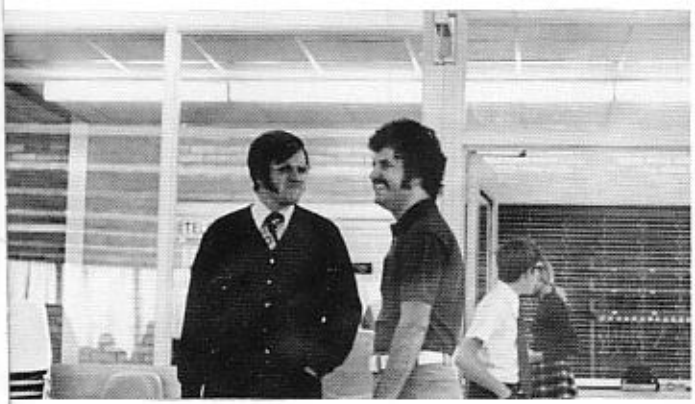
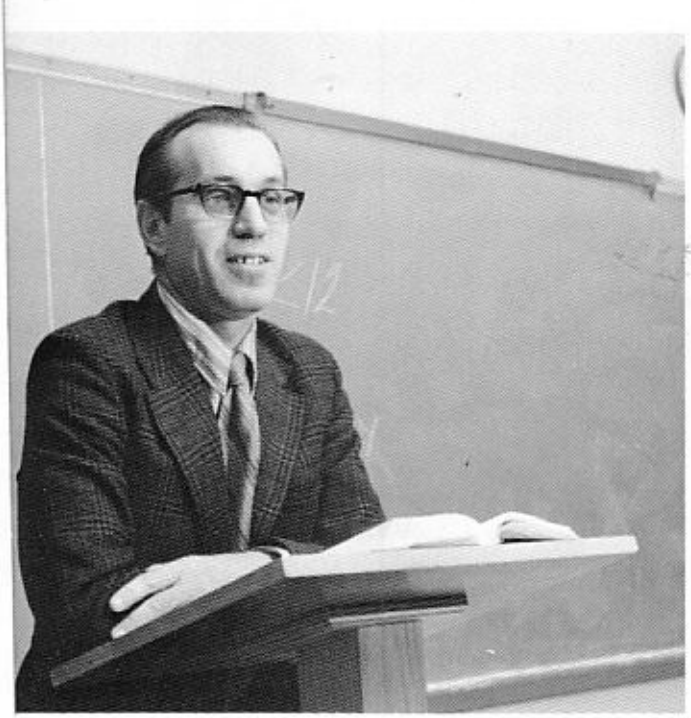
Mrs. Calhoun (Home Ec.) shares many helpful hints.

A course in reasoning

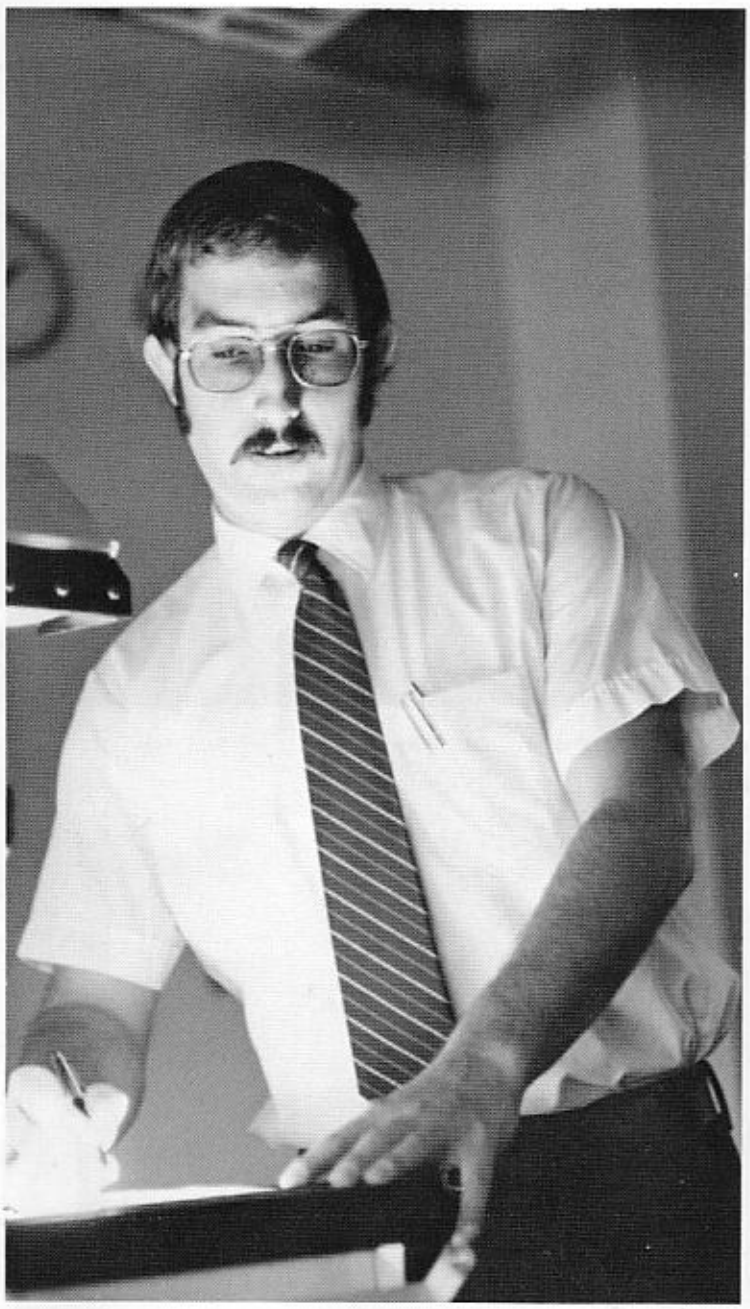
Mr. Cieslar (Math—English) checks the days work.



Everyone enjoys a study hall.

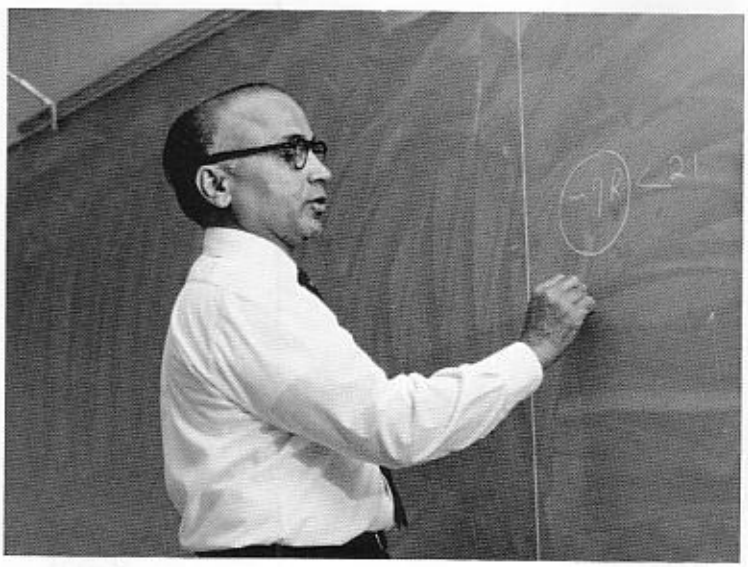


Another interesting comment from Mr. Boesze (Math).

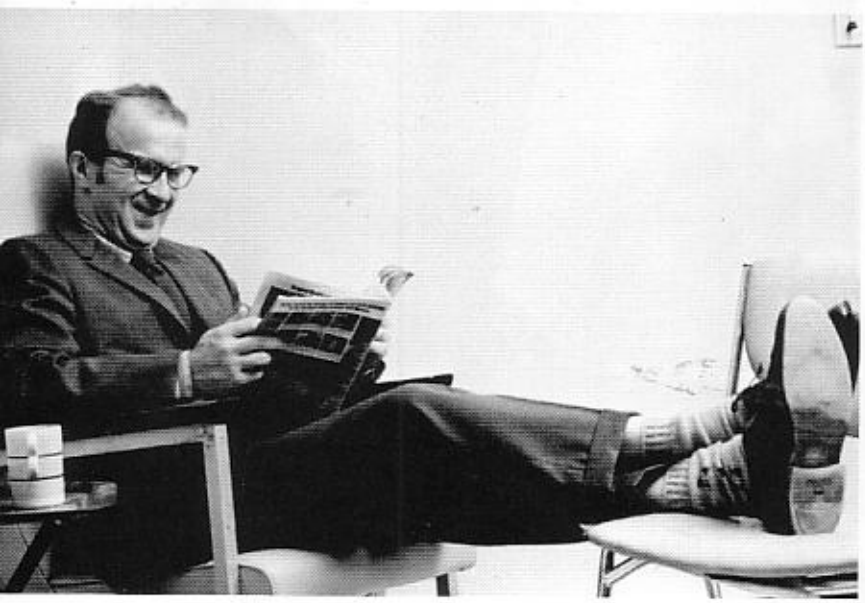


Mr. Hughes (I.A.) finds that students enjoy seeing as well as hearing.

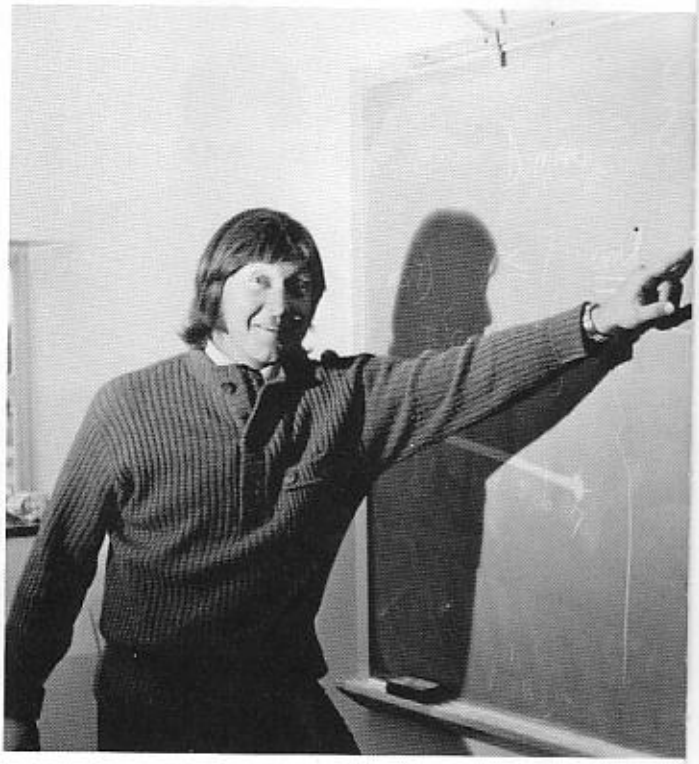
Learning to think



Another problem easily solved with Mr. Jain (Math).

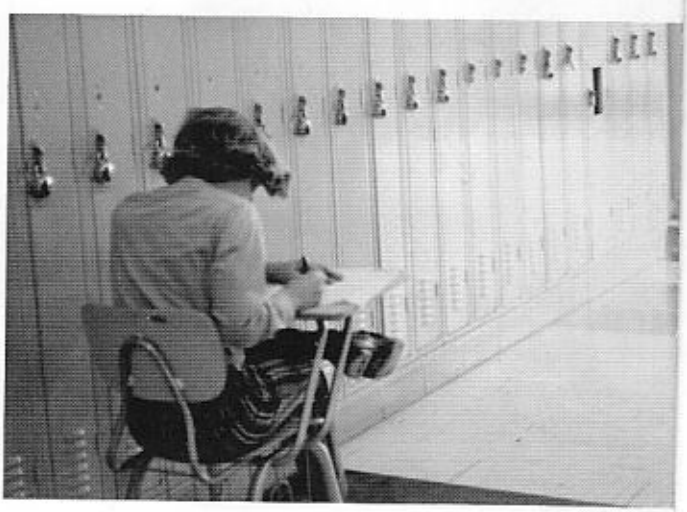


Mr. Hach (Math) relaxes after a hard day at work.

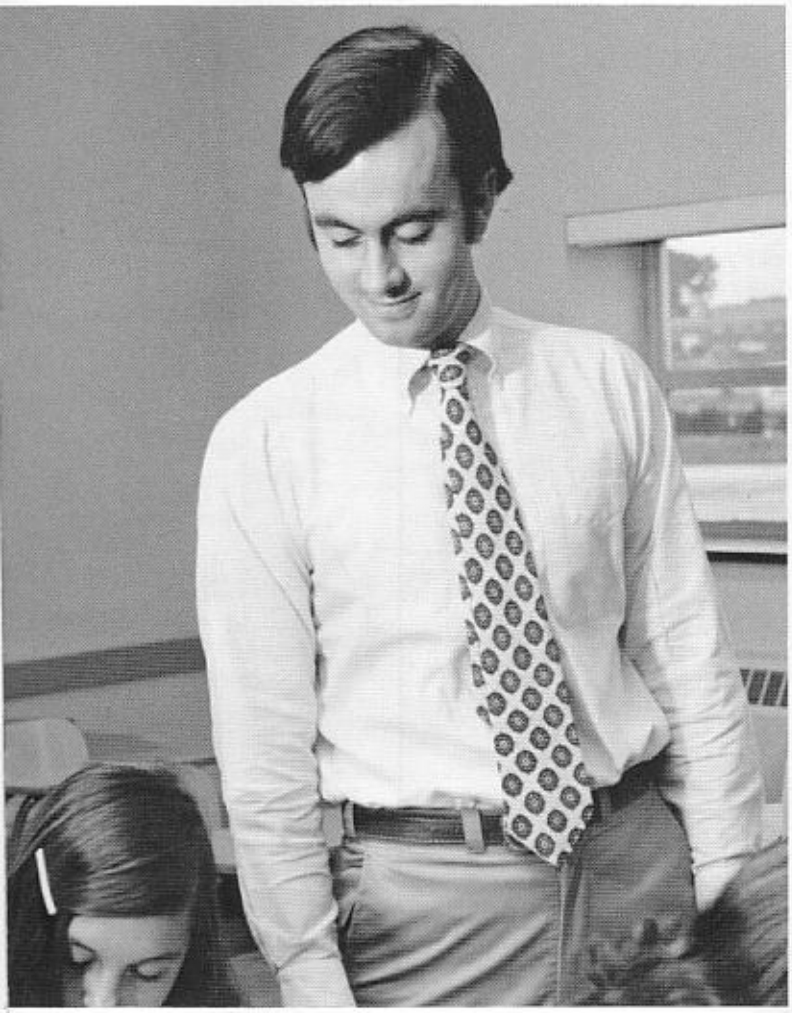


Mr. Pearce (Math) points to an enlightening fact.

"Did you get this far?" asks Mr. Neumister (Math).



Where are your friends when you need them?



Mr. Ables (Math) nods approvingly at the solution of a problem.

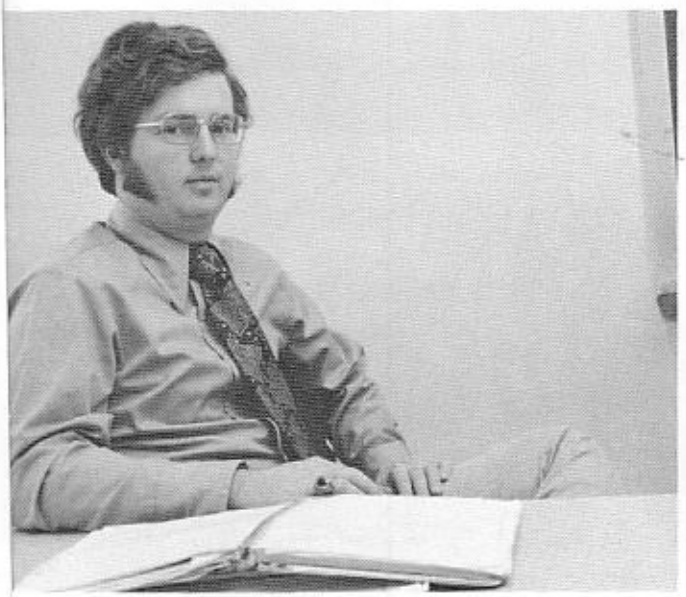
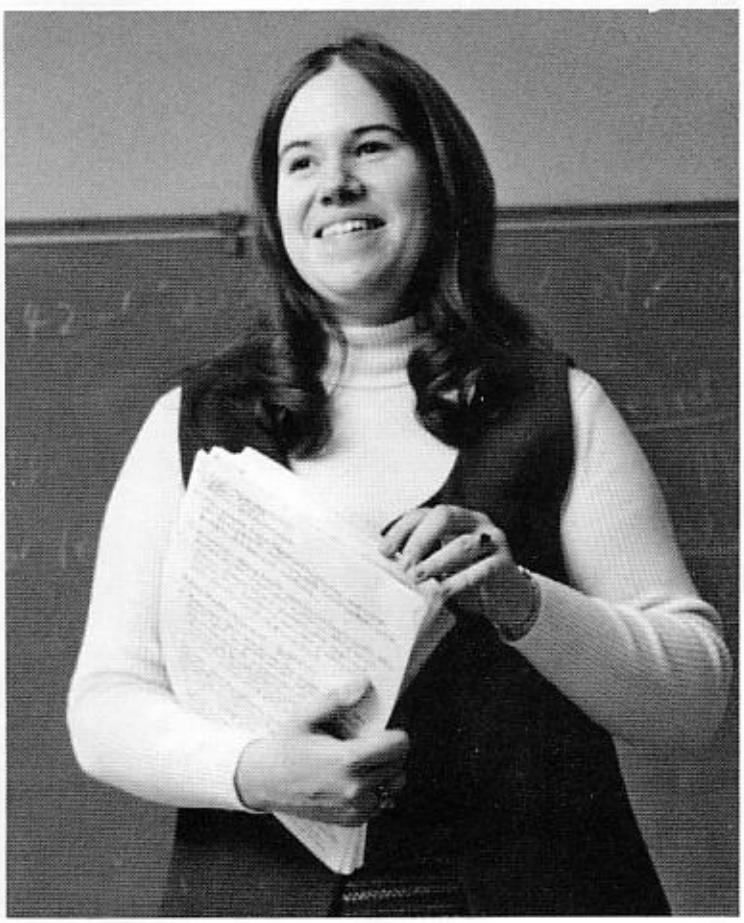
Mrs. Jervier (History) smiles about an impressive paper.



Even Mr. Ellis (Hitstory) looks forward to 2:20.

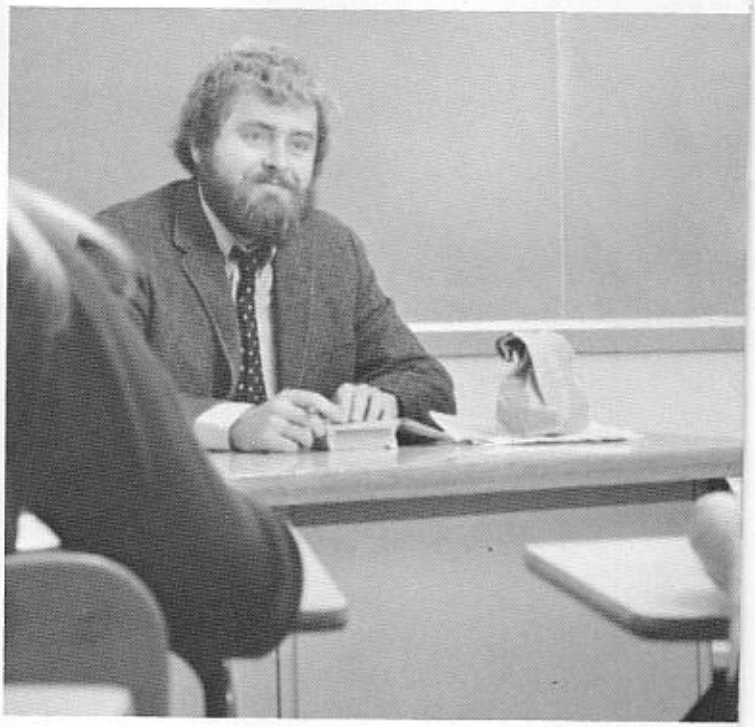


Miss Gleason (History) creates an enjoyable atmosphere in her class.

Miss Pellegrino (History—Discipline) is pleased with her students progress.

Another good result for Mrs. Sullivan (Admin.—Histor

Miss Drzewiecki (History) takes a stand on political matters.



Another concept related in Mr. Duffy's (English) Black Studies.

Mr. Buscaglia (History) reaches out to his studetnts.

The key — creativity

The personal touch of Mrs. Gates (Art) is greatly appreciated.

They even make rugs in Miss Laughlin's (Art) creative crafts class!

Mrs. Kirschhofer (Art) uses models to explain how different art forms began.

Democracy or Tyranny?

Edwin McAuley
1955—1973

"And with the changing of day to night, the moon rises; the tide comes in and washes over the sun dried sand. Life is created, changed, and reclaimed. Nothing on earth can alter this course of nature. So as in life, we are born, we grow, and we become. Then, as though carried with the outgoing tide, we are returned to our very beginnings. All our experiences have prepared us for this, our only real reason for existing. Those left behind must suffer the loss; those carried on are truly free to be at peace for all eternity.

With the Lord as the day, night, moon, land, and water we turn to Him for condolence and comfort. Our faith sustains us through the evening hours to a new day."

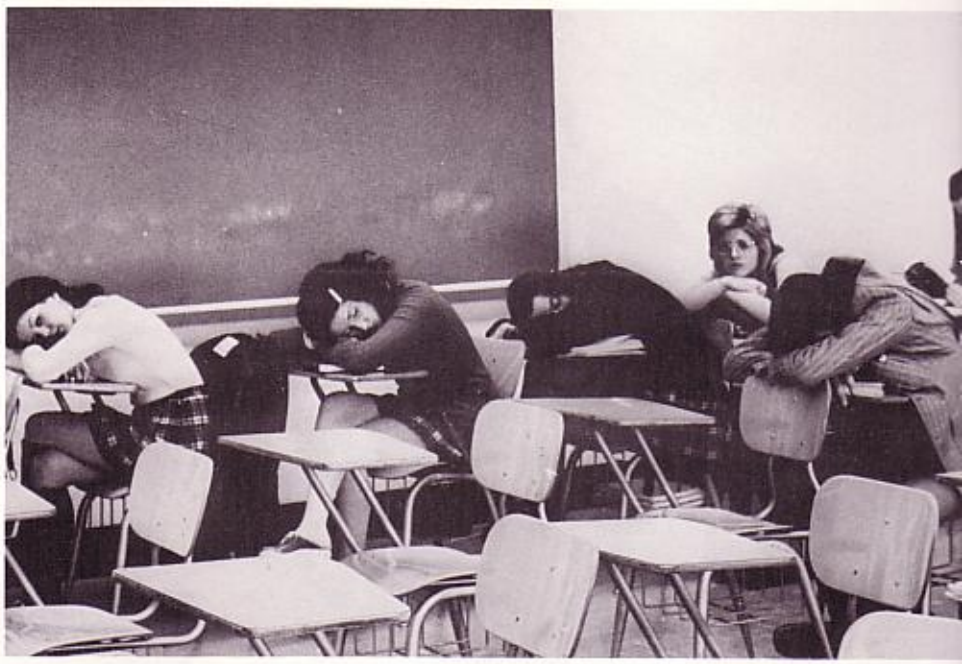
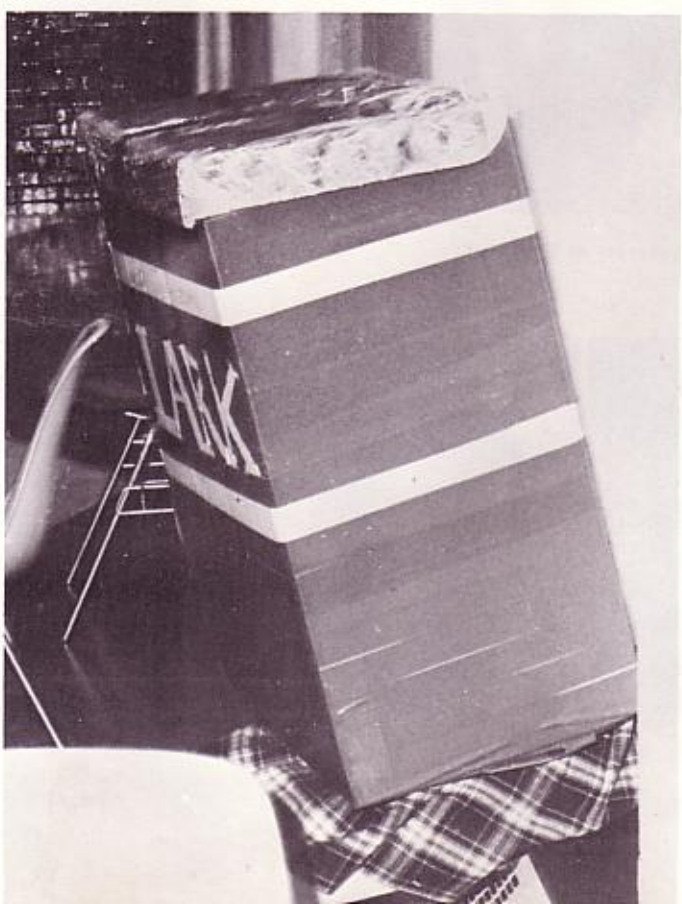
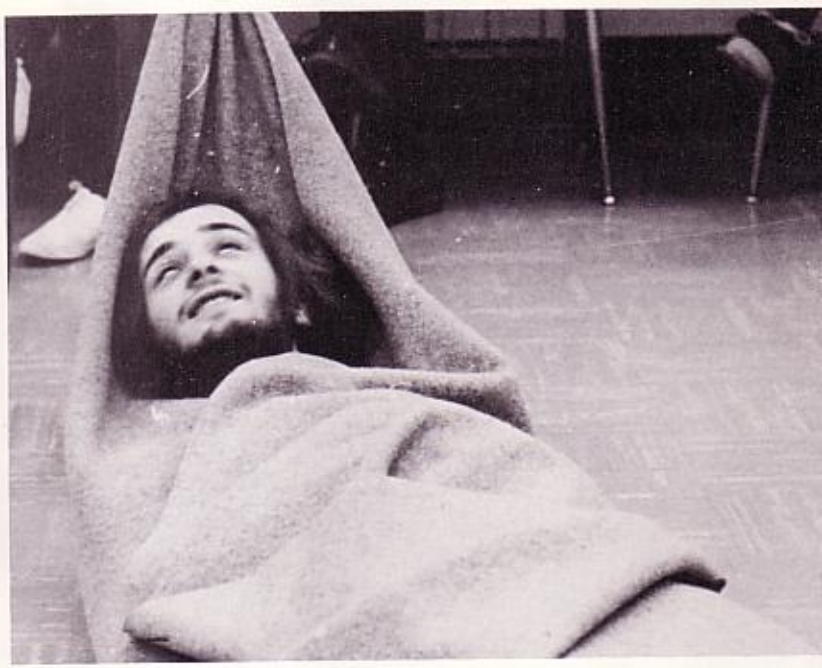
Hard to say good-by





Freshman year seems a long time away
So very many memories
These four years taught us so much,
About people,
About life
But there's still so much to learn
It's hard to say good-bye to friends,
Some we'll never see
But it must be done,
There's no choice
Because
It's over



The year 1972-1973

A world of mixed emotions,
in a year of change
Pollution controls, recycling, ddt
Abortion upheld, capital punishment banned
The right to life?
Alaska: oil vs. ecology
The godfather: a movie masterpiece
"Pieta" is assulted
Clifford irving; howard hughes; mc graw-hill
Nixon goes to moscow
Woman's lib, childrens lib, gay lib?
The concert for bangladesh
Busing
The struggle for ulster, and freedom
Hurricane agnes, the june floods
The late j. edgar hoover: mr. f.b.i.
Bobby fischer: chess king
Goodbye to the moon
The solar eclipse
Jesus freaks
The olympics, death and victory
Mark spitz, a new hero
Wallace is shot
Election '72
The watergate affair
Nixon wins, a landslide
The u.s. travels with henry
Floating dollars, inflation, price controls
Unemployment
Senator hale boggs: lost in alaska
The managuan earthquake
The war: bombs, napalm
Peace agreement
P.o.w.'s come home
Sky jacking continues
Stock market hit 1003: all time high
George foreman: "the" boxer
Sergeant (john banner) schultz dies
Harry truman dies
L.b.j. dies
The war in viet nam died?

A world of mixed emotions,
some cared, some didn't care,
some were involved, some were isolated,
trying to adjust, in a year of change.

"Thank you's"

A smile from a stranger, a handshake from an acquaintance, or a hug from an old friend — "a way of expression." Now as Memoir finishes the last details, I, too, must use "a way of expression."

Thank you is such a simple way of expressing gratitude, and only now I see the sincerity that a simple word can hold. With this, I must say "thank you" to the many "beautiful people" who made this book a reality.

For cooperation and continued encouragement, I thank Father Griffin along with the administration and faculty.

For the fantastic success of the Patron Drive, I thank Brother Babicz, Lisa Karrer and their co-workers.

To Mr. Sloane of Delmar Publishers, and Mrs. Held and Mr. McGee of Varden Studios, I owe a great debt of gratitude, not only for their services to Memoir, but also for the chance to work with such wonderful people who are truly professional in every sense of the word. Thank you.

I thank Mr. Domagalski, our adviser, who always found time in his busy schedule to assist us in the production of Memoir; also I thank the staff members of Memoir for their hard work and continued interest, for without them, Memoir '73 would be only a dream.

Finally, I want to give a special thanks to the people that are directly responsible for Memoir '73.

While working with these truly great people during the past year, I have found that their sincerity and dedication is as deep as the Universe.

Pax Semper

With all its sham, drudgery, and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.
